

Macgregor Primary School Athletics Carnival Friday 5 July 2024

Dear Parents and Carers

Macgregor Primary School will be having its Athletics Carnival on Friday 5 of July 2024 at the Charnwood Playing Fields. The carnival is for all students who are in grades 2 – 6 and provides students an opportunity to qualify to represent the school at the upcoming Belconnen Regional Track and Field Carnival later in Term 3. Attached to this note is a proposed timetable for the day along with the events being ran and map of the venue. Please note: discus and shot put qualifying will be run at school early Term 3 for eligible students.

The success of these carnivals relies heavily on the support of its community. Parents and carers are encouraged to volunteer for the day by registering your interest via the QR code attached to this note.

Parents and carers are welcome to join us throughout the day. Parents may take their child home after their child's events by advising the classroom teacher prior to the event and by signing your child out at the First Aid tent prior to leaving.
